Message from the Chief of Police

On behalf of the ever-dedicated professionals of the Kingsport Police Department, I am pleased to present our department's 2021 Annual Report. I trust this report will give insight as to the hard work and diligent efforts our men and women put forth into ensuring for the safety and welfare of the great citizens of our "model city".

I truly consider it an immense blessing and high honor to be the 15th Chief of Police of this city and to have the privilege of leading the men and women of this century old law enforcement agency. Each and every professional is committed to being the best he or she can be and making the city of Kingsport a safe place to live, work, and play.

The year of 2021 presented many challenges for us as we were still trying to navigate through the residual effects of the 2020 pandemic. Many of our delicate balances between providing services to the community, as well as being cognizant of community health concerns, were still in place. Even with limited personal contacts and a better understanding of "zoom" meetings, the Kingsport Police Department achieved our 9th international accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA) with meritorious honors. This incredible distinction is another milestone that is a direct reflection of the tireless pursuit for excellence of this noble department.

I am convinced that the very essence of policing occurs when an entire community works together to meet and overcome societal challenges. Policing, at the very core of existence, must be abundantly prepared and confront the very dangers that are present to the public, all the while meeting community expectations and the demand for transparency and accountability. We recognize and appreciate the continued contributions our citizens make toward creating a wholesome community which provides for an effective policing experience.

It is our continued desire to deliver professional police services by utilizing data-based law enforcement strategies and cutting edge technologies while developing a more close and personal relationship with our community which we serve.

Lastly and personally, thank you to the men and women of the Kingsport Police Department for demonstrating your professionalism day-in and day-out and thank you to the citizens of this proud city, who are the very reason "we do what we do".

Respectfully,

Dale Phipps
Chief of Police

The City of Kingsport's government is based upon the Council-Manager form of government. This form of government was established in 1917 when the City was re-incorporated into what is now known as the modern city of Kingsport.

The City is governed by a seven member Board of Mayor and Aldermen, elected at-large and on a non-partisan basis for four-year staggered terms. The exception to this rule is that the Mayor is elected at-large for a two year term. Elections are held in May during odd numbered years. The new Board of Mayor and Alderman is seated on 1 July of each election year.

The Board of Mayor and Aldermen for 2021 was comprised of the following individuals: Mayor Patrick Shull, Vice Mayor Colette George, Alderman Jennifer Axsom Adler, term expired August 2021, Alderman Darrell Duncan, Alderman Betsy Cooper, Alderman Paul Montgomery, term began July 2021, Alderman Tommy Olterman, and Alderman James Phillips. INTRODUCTION

In 1822 the town of Christianville and the town of Rossville combined to form the incorporated town of Kingsport. The second oldest town in Sullivan County, Kingsport was considered the largest and most influential City in the county. Almost 100 years elapsed before Kingsport officially became a City in March 1917. Until that time, all law enforcement was performed by constables and the Sheriff of Sullivan County.

Upon being notified that the City had been chartered, the new governing body appointed George Barger as Chief of Police and three additional officers, W.P. Flora, A.R. Hagy, and Sam Barger, to serve and protect the City of Kingsport. Sullivan County Deputies W.W. Leedy and S.P. Devault were also still assigned to patrol the City.

The City of Kingsport has had fifteen Police Chiefs since its charter, the current being Chief Dale Phipps. Currently, the Kingsport Police Department has one hundred and nineteen sworn Officer positions, nine Corrections Officers, twenty-two Telecommunicators, and eleven civilian positions variously assigned. The department serves a population of slightly over 55,000 citizens. The City encompasses 53.58 square miles, the majority of which is inside of Sullivan County, with the westernmost edge in Hawkins County. Officers patrol 502.14 miles of streets, which include 25.53 miles of interstates.

The Kingsport Police Department also operates the City's 911 Communications Center. The department is unique in that it is one of the few municipal police departments in the state that operate an in-house city jail. In 1989, the police department moved into the current Justice Center. Shortly after this move, the department was able to achieve an important goal by obtaining national accreditation through the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies (CALEA). The Kingsport Police Department was the first law enforcement agency in the East Tennessee region, as well as being only the third agency in the entire State of Tennessee, to achieve this honor.

Operations Bureau

Patrol Division

As the backbone of the police department, the Patrol Division is divided into four rotating platoons. These four platoons are responsible for responding to citizens' complaints, handling calls for service, initiating police investigations, and enforcing traffic laws. With additional specialized units supplementing the Patrol Division, the Kingport Police Department answered 60,014 calls in 2021 compared to 59,157 in 2020. This is an increase of 857 calls, or 1.44 %. As a result of these calls and investigations, 4,603 adults and juveniles were either arrested or issued a misdemeanor citation in lieu of arrest.

Calls for service (CFS) represent all calls handled by KPD. These include 911 calls and non-emergency calls. CFS does not take into account the amount of work needed to complete varying types of calls. The amount of time to handle each CFS can range from a few minutes to thousands of hours for significant incidents.

Non-custodial arrests are arrests where the suspect is arrested then released on a misdemeanor citation. Custodial arrests are arrests made where the suspect is arrested and subsequently transported to the City Jail or the Sullivan County Jail.

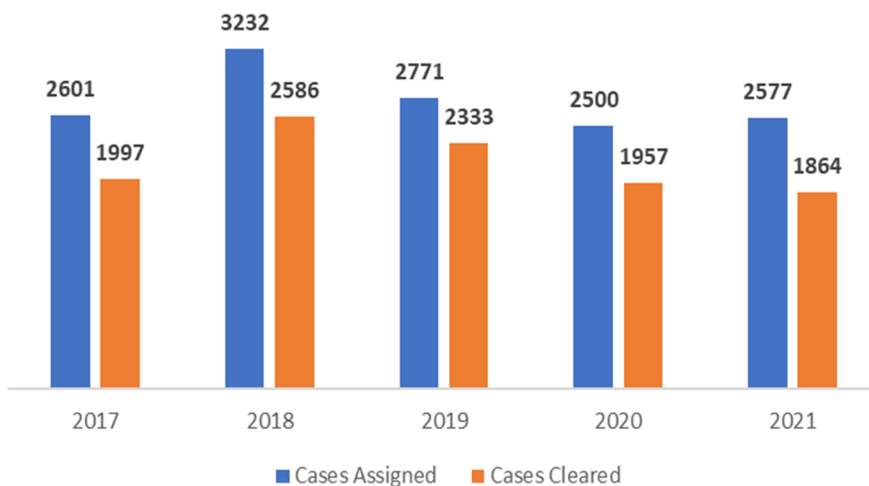

Operations Bureau

Criminal Investigations Division

The Kingsport Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division encompasses the traditional investigations of crimes against persons and property crimes as well as the specialized investigations of vice and narcotics related crimes. The C.I.D. Commander manages four supervisors and over a dozen detectives who collectively investigate all major crimes reported to K.P.D. Detectives utilize conventional methods, state of the art technology, and good old fashioned police work to process crime scenes, identify perpetrators, and bring criminals to justice. The detectives assigned to the Criminal Investigation Division investigated 2,577 cases in 2021. Of these 1864 were cleared, for a clearance rate of 72%.

CID Investigations

Corporal Mailloux and Detective Clare prepare a room for a CID training scenario.

FTO Moyers participates in CID training for bloodstain pattern analysis.

Operations Bureau

School Resource Officers

The Kingsport Police Department continues to maintain an excellent working relationship with the Kingsport City Schools. Two officers are dedicated to Dobyns-Bennett High School while Cora Cox, DB Excel, John Sevier Middle School and Ross N. Robinson Middle School have one officer assigned to each school. Additionally, four part-time officers share responsibilities for the elementary schools. For the year 2021, the SROs documented four hundred three reports.

In addition to the SROs, Kingsport Police Department Patrol Officers conducted 649 school “walk-thrus” at all city schools in 2021, to include the Palmer Center and St. Dominic Catholic School.

Operations Bureau

Traffic Enforcement Unit

There were 2,812 traffic crashes investigated by members of the Traffic Unit and Patrol Division in 2021. Of those crashes, there were (6) six fatal crashes, resulting in the deaths of (6) six people, and 472 personal injury crashes that resulted in the injury or potential injury to 651 occupants or pedestrians. The total number of crashes increased by 0.25 % compared to 2020.

One of the most common ways the Kingsport Police Department attempts to reduce traffic crashes is through diligent traffic enforcement and D.U.I. and seatbelt checkpoints. There were 9,366 citations issued in 2021 (this number includes violations of city ordinance as well as state law), with 55.3% of those being warning citations. Members of the department participated in D.U.I. and seatbelt checkpoints as well as 285 hours of saturation patrols as part of a Tennessee Highway Safety Office Grant. The focus of these saturation patrols is traffic safety and the reduction of crashes and fatalities through traffic law enforcement.

Operations Bureau

Power Shift

The Power Shift Unit is comprised of a group of officers that are utilized to target what the police department considers “hot spots” of criminal activity. Members of this unit handle everything from juvenile vandalism to serious drug complaints. The Power Shift Unit also has the ability to answer calls city-wide wherever the greater need exists. Another benefit is being able to spend more time in different communities to address problems and concerns the residents may perceive. In addition, the officer can help them figure out a solution for the problem.

Operations Bureau

Special Weapons And Tactics

Commonly referred to as the “S.W.A.T. team”, twelve members make up this unit. Additionally, there are two highly trained hostage negotiators on 24-hour callout that provide a valuable resource to the team. The S.W.A.T. team is activated only under the most extraordinary of circumstances, where the team’s specialized training, weapons, and tactics can be utilized. The S.W.A.T. team was activated eight times in 2021.

Operations Bureau

K-9

The use of a trained police canine is an effective tool in law enforcement. Although their greatest value lies in the deterring effect of their presence, the use of a canine in making an arrest is only authorized when the circumstances legally justify such use.

The canine handlers must be constantly alert to the amount of force they can legally use to make or maintain an arrest, and in determining the degree of force to be used; the handlers must take into consideration all known circumstances.

Primarily canines are assigned to each patrol shift and all are dual purpose dogs. In other words, they may be used for tracking, building searches, apprehensions, and item location (other evidence) at crime scenes which is patrol work. They are also used for scent work, locating narcotics and bombs, as the second job.

The Kingsport Police Department began using K-9s in 1968, and has the second oldest continuous K-9 force in Tennessee, behind Memphis. The KPD uses the Malinois (pronounced MAL-in-wah) generally imported from Holland. They were chosen over the more famous German Shepherd because they have fewer health problems and have longer useful service lives, usually until they are 11 years old. They are also a very high-energy dog.

Dogs and handlers are carefully screened and tested prior to training. It takes 16 weeks to train the basics for a dog. In addition, each dog and handler team currently attends a 2-8 week school together in preparation for their function as a “K-9” team. This time variation depends upon the experience of the handler. Unlike some departments, KPD canines are not assigned “ranks”.

K9s often respond to commands in multiple languages such as Dutch, German and English. Generally, this is the handler’s choice.

For the year 2021, the K-9 teams were utilized 203 times.

Operations Bureau

Bomb Squad

In 2021, the Kingsport Police Department Bomb Squad responded to nine calls and safely disposed of various types of explosives. Due to current events, the Bomb Squad also responds to calls of suspicious packages. They are often utilized for mutual aid in assisting other jurisdictions before significant events.

Operations Bureau

Parking Enforcement

The Parking Enforcement Officer issued 657 citations for illegal parking. These were issued for violations of the various parking ordinances to include handicapped parking violations.

Operations Bureau

Crime Analysis

Crime analysis is an important part of detecting current and developing trends in criminal activity. When patterns are detected, the information can be pushed out to the appropriate division or unit for action. This task requires constant monitoring of data and reports as they come in to see if the resources that have been deployed are being effective. This is crucial when blended with the CompStat (Computerized Statistics) program for police supervision. The Crime Analyst is able to provide supervisors the most current information so decisions and adjustments can be made regarding manpower and resources.

Administrative Bureau

Introduction

It is the responsibility of the Administrative Bureau to provide technical support to all components within the organization of the Kingsport Police Department for orderly and efficient day-to-day functions.

Administrative Bureau

Corrections/Jail

The Kingsport City Jail is classified as a Type II facility by the State of Tennessee, meaning that prisoners are held for 72 hours or less. Correctional Officers are responsible for booking and processing persons arrested by police personnel. Once the prisoner is brought into the jail, the Correctional Officer begins the booking process, which includes a thorough search of the prisoner, securing the prisoner's property, a detailed medical screening, fingerprinting and photographing the prisoner, and securing them in a cell. Once incarcerated, Correctional Officers are responsible for the constant monitoring of the prisoners until they are released or transferred to another holding facility. In 2021, the Kingsport City Jail processed 2,243 physical arrests on over 5,090 charges and processed 84 subjects that were issued Misdemeanor Citations. The Kingsport City Jail is a state certified holding facility, falling under the rules and regulations of the Tennessee Corrections Institute. Our jail is inspected annually by a Detention Facilities Specialist from the Tennessee Corrections Institute, ensuring that our facility and staff are meeting the criteria mandated by the state.

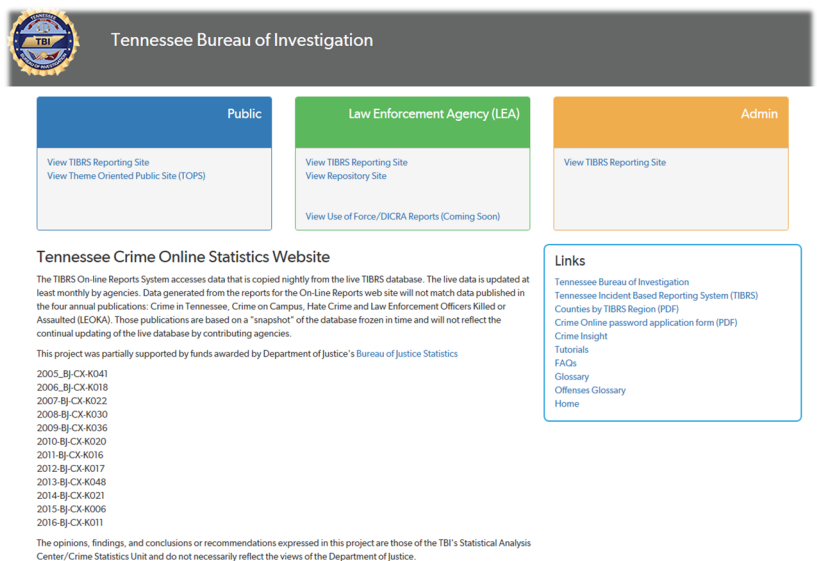

Administrative Bureau Records Division

In addition to personnel in the Records Division being the first interaction many citizens have at the police department, this division is also the central repository for nearly all police department generated paperwork. This includes handwritten handicap parking citations as well as closed major crime investigations. The Records Division is staffed by three full-time Records Clerks, one part-time Records Clerk, one full-time Court Clerk, and one full-time Receptionist. These clerks continue to ensure reporting accuracy of TIBRS data via validation checks of electronic reports submitted by officers. Additionally, they collect fines for city ordinance and Red Light Camera violations, fulfill citizen's requests for police reports, track all court subpoenas for departmental personnel, and assist patrol officers and detectives when requested.

Administrative Bureau TIBRS Reporting

The Kingsport Police Department reported 6,536 Group A offenses to the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation in 2021, which is 28 less than 2020 (6564). In 2021 3,454 cases were cleared, resulting in a 52.85% clearance rate which exceeds the state average. For additional information on crime statistics, contact the T.B.I. at:

The screenshot displays the Tennessee Bureau of Investigation (TBI) website. At the top, the TBI logo and name are visible. Below this, there are three main navigation tabs: "Public", "Law Enforcement Agency (LEA)", and "Admin". Each tab has a corresponding "View TIBRS Reporting Site" link. The "Public" tab also includes a link to "View Theme Oriented Public Site (TOPS)". The "LEA" tab includes a link to "View Repository Site" and a link to "View Use of Force/DICRA Reports (Coming Soon)". The "Admin" tab includes a link to "View TIBRS Reporting Site".

Below the navigation tabs, there is a section titled "Tennessee Crime Online Statistics Website". This section contains a paragraph explaining that the TIBRS On-Line Reports System accesses data that is copied nightly from the live TIBRS database. It also mentions that the live data is updated at least monthly by agencies and that data generated from the reports for the On-Line Reports web site will not match data published in the four annual publications: Crime in Tennessee, Crime on Campus, Hate Crime and Law Enforcement Officers Killed or Assaulted (LEOKA). Those publications are based on a "snapshot" of the database frozen in time and will not reflect the continual updating of the live database by contributing agencies.

Below this paragraph, there is a list of years and corresponding codes: 2005-BJ-CX-K041, 2006-BJ-CX-K018, 2007-BJ-CX-K022, 2008-BJ-CX-K030, 2009-BJ-CX-K036, 2010-BJ-CX-K020, 2011-BJ-CX-K016, 2012-BJ-CX-K017, 2013-BJ-CX-K048, 2014-BJ-CX-K021, 2015-BJ-CX-K006, and 2016-BJ-CX-K011.
