Section 17. The Declarant will record a plat showing and accurately defining the easements for Stormwater Management Facilities and the access easement to these Facilities. The plat must reference the instrument number, where this Covenant is recorded, and contain a note that the Property Owner is responsible for maintaining the Facilities pursuant to this Covenant. A plat is required for all commercial development or redevelopment, even if less than one acre in size. A plat is required for all development or redevelopment of a residential lot if the lot is greater than one acre or if the lot is a part of a larger development plan, meaning a development of two or more lots, regardless of size.

Section 18. The Declarant will record these Covenants in the Office of the Register of Deeds in the county where the property lies and return the original to the City before the final plat is signed by the City, before all or any portion of the Property is transferred or conveyed, or before any permits are issued by the City.

Section 19. The Declarant or Property Owner, its successors and assigns, shall have the obligation to construct and complete all the Stormwater Management Facilities as required by the City.

Section 20. The Property, this Covenant, and all provisions of Successive Documents and other separately recorded instruments applicable to the Property (or any portion thereof) are subject to the ordinances, regulations, and rules of the City, and will be construed in accordance with all of the applicable provisions of the Code, whether or not such Code provisions are specifically referenced in this Covenant or in any Successive Document. It will be the responsibility of each Property Owner to comply with all provisions of the Code applicable to the Property. No Successive Document may avoid, vary, negate, or waive the obligations and rights of the Declarant, any Property Owner or the City without an amendment to this Covenant with City Approval.

Section 21. (a) The provisions of the Code control over any inconsistent provisions of this Covenant or any Successive Document. As applicable provisions of the Code are amended, modified, revised, deleted, or moved to different sections, this Covenant is deemed to be revised so as to conform to the provisions of the Code as they exist from time to time and are applicable to the Property or any part thereof.

(b) The provisions of this Covenant will control over any inconsistent provisions of any Successive Document. To the extent that any Successive Document affecting the Property conflicts with the provisions of the Code or the Tennessee Code Annotated, the conflicting provision will be automatically cured to comply with the Code and the Tennessee Code Annotated. To the extent the requirements of the Code and the Tennessee Code Annotated conflict, the Tennessee Code Annotated will prevail and apply.

(c) Allocation of assessment obligations among Owners in any Successive Document will not constitute a conflict with this Covenant. Provided, however, the rights of the City in this Covenant, including, without limitation, the rights of the City to enforce liens and collect monies from an Owner or Owners, will not be impaired or adversely affected by any such allocation of assessment obligations in any Successive Document.

Section 22. Any amendment of this Covenant must have City Approval. Amendments to this Covenant are valid only with City Approval and only from the time of recording in the appropriate Office of the Register of Deeds.
